MER - FLEN

PRESS RELEASE

Released 30th of October 2026, Digitally and on Vinyl

In 2023, FLEN released their first full-length album, featuring guest appearances by Per "Texas" Johansson. In the wake of the release, FLEN toured across Scandinavia and the Baltics, was nominated for Gyllene Skivan 2024 by Orkesterjournalen, and received second prize at the Getxo Jazz Competition. Out of these years of work comes their third album

PREVIEW LISTEN

ABOUT THE ALBUM

On 'Mer', FLEN expands its expression to incorporate several styles adjacent to jazz, creating space for the members' strengths both as soloists and composers. In this way the album consists of music that is very personal to the members, as well as mixing genres in a way that is typical for FLEN. With touches of boogie, pop ballads, and Scandinavian melancholy, there is room for both humor and intimacy.

FLEN is a chord-free jazz group with members from Sweden and Denmark who have been working together since 2021. Drawing inspiration from the formidable combination of Ornette Coleman, Don Cherry, Archie Shepp, as well as the Swedish towns of Flen, Årsta and Trelleborg, FLEN's sound has continued to take shape and grow over the last years.

They are based in Copenhagen, Malmö, Gothenburg and Stockholm

Musicians:
Andreas Lundblom - trumpet, alto horn
Marius Zeeberg - saxes, bass clarinet, alto flute
Olle Lannér Risenfors - double bass, didgeridoo
Kristian Remnelius - drums, misc. percussion

Recorded and mixed by Bebe Risenfors at Sounds And Music, Skåne Sweden
Mastered by John Fomsgaard
Album cover and layout by Marius Zeeberg
